February 25th- March 4th, 2018

Starting @ $1,743.00 based on double occupancy

Please join The Jacksonville Ski Club when we join ranks with the Florida Ski Council as we travel to a Rocky Mountain town at its finest, Jackson Hole, Wyoming. This western town is rich with its dining, shopping, spa and nightlife offerings (can you say Mangy Moose) and is known for its elite skiing on a mountain with 4139 vertical feet (one of the largest in the US). Last winter brought almost 600 inches of snow and the first trip up often starts with the 9-minute tram ride with 100 of your newest friends. In addition, this town knocks on the door of both Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks. And, don't limit your activities to just the ski slopes as almost every outdoor winter activity is available from snowshoeing to snowmobiling to sleigh rides,,and more. Since this trip is a Florida Ski Council sponsored trip there will be a welcome dinner party, a fun race, an on mountain lunch and a themed party for all the Florida ski club participants.

LODGING: 49er Inn: This completely remodeled 140 room Inn is set amongst Jackson's downtown restaurants, shopping, art galleries and nightspots. It has a new indoor pool and fitness center, indoor and outdoor hot tubs and complimentary continental breakfast every day. With free shuttles to the ski area this Inn offers the best of both the civilized world and the ski world. The rooms are booked as double occupancy, but some single upgrade supplements are available.
